DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-121 and 127-210, drawn to the specifics of a scanner device, classified in class 235, subclass 462.25.
- II. Claims 122-126, drawn to the method of manufacturing a non-edge emitting laser diode package, classified in class 235, subclass 454.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the scanner does not specifically requiring the method of manufacturing a non-edge emitting laser diode package as recited in Group II. The subcombination has separate utility such as in other scanning devices.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Claims 1, 29, 70, 76, 127, 150, 166, are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising

- various housing embodiments: i.e. different housing details
- various optics embodiments: i.e. different types of mirrors
- various package embodiments
- various embodiments for intended applications: i.e. ring mounted device, key chain, writing instrument, PDA, computer terminal, modular scanning device, etc.
- and so on.

Though the generic claims are acceptable, applicant is respectfully required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Art Unit: 2876

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Further, applicant is noted that the multiple species, embodiments claimed are not supported by the drawings and well as they often place a burden search on the examiner predetermined allotted time.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Thien M. Le whose telephone number is (571) 272-2396. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 7:30am - 4:00pm.
